

Registration Terms & Conditions

The Terms and Conditions contain the rules and restrictions to which each delegate must agree before purchasing any registration(s) to the Conference.

Each Registration is a contract between:

- (A) the Purchaser and any delegate replacing the Purchaser, (where a sale or transfer from the Purchaser has been authorised and is valid) and;
- (B) the organisation(s) with the legal and/or contractual rights (i) to sell and/or issue registrations to a Conference, and (ii) to grant access the Venue for the purposes of attending the Conference, subject to the Registration being valid.

The Conditions set out below contain the rules and restrictions around both the purchase of and use of that Registration.

Registrations processed by Event Services are sold on behalf of the organisation responsible for that event and subject to the conditions applicable to their event. Registrations sold via Event Services' websites are non-refundable and cannot be exchanged, without written notification and within the timeframe given in the cancellation and refund policy.

For any Member Registration purchased online at a discounted price, it will be necessary to show the relevant Membership ID at the venue. By processing their online registrations, Delegates' agree to the Terms and Conditions listed here.

PROCESS TO CONFIRM YOUR ONLINE REGISTRATION

OPTION 1: Register online and pay online straight away the required conference fees to secure your booking.

OPTION 2: Register online and pay via bank transfer. This option is only available at the discretion of the organising committee, please email ITAC7@auckland.ac.nz directly for this option.

No registration is considered confirmed without full payment of conference fees.

Registration processed under option 2, will not be confirmed and remain tentative only until paid.

Event Services reserves the right to cancel outstanding registrations and sell the space to others if payment is not received within 7 days of invoice.
