September 2023

SECTION A: PARTIES

A1 PARTIES

- A1.1 The parties to this agreement are the Vice Chancellor of Waipapa Taumata Rau | The University of Auckland (the "Employer"), and the Employee.

This means you will be paid in accordance with the pay rates set out in the collective agreement and be eligible for service-related entitlements which may differ from the pay rate and service related entitlements provided to you under your individual agreement.

SECTION B: COVERAGE OF AGREEMENT

- B1.1 Horticulturist Team Leader is a qualified horticulturist who has responsibility for leading horticulture/gardening staff, as described in the position description.

- B1.3 Gardener is an employee who possesses the necessary skill, knowledge and experience to carry out their duties, as described in the position description.

Security

- B1.4 University Security Team Leader is a qualified University Security Officer who has responsibility for leading University Security Officers as described in the position description.
- B1.5 University Security Officers
A University Security Officer is an employee who possesses the necessary skill, knowledge and experience to carry out their duties as described in the position description.
- B1.6 Control Room Operators
A Control Room Operator is an employee who possesses the necessary skill, knowledge and experience to carry out their duties as described in the position description.
- B1.7 University Security Services Coordinator
A University Security Services Coordinator is an employee who possesses the necessary skill, knowledge and experience to carry out their duties as described in the position description.

B2 HISTORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

- B2.1 The University security service is grounded in the old custodian roles. When the custodian system was replaced by more specialist services, guards were appointed to provide services to the Grafton, Tamaki and City campuses with a focus on security, resulting in the formation of the Unisafe brand. The Unisafe roles developed over time to include additional security responsibilities with a primary emphasis on the security management of the Universities grounds, car parks and buildings.

- B2.2 However, more recently, the Security Officer role has become strongly focused on security, safety, and pastoral care for students and staff in response to legislation changes in 2010. In 2013 the University rebranded Unisafe as University Security to reflect the complexity and diversity of these roles and the continuing focus on staff and students, which has superseded the need of the Unisafe brand. Whilst Unisafe brand remains an important part of the history, the evolution of the service means it does adequately reflect the role and responsibilities of the University Security Officer.
- B2.3 The University of Auckland Security Officers are identified by their distinctive University uniform which reflects the fact that they are dedicated employees of the University and provide an integral service.

Accordingly, the selection of the relevant practitioner, (although nominated by the University) is to be by mutual agreement. The cost of the medical examinations will be met by the Employer. A copy of any relevant report provided by the agreed medical practitioner will be available to both parties.

G6.2 An Employee who intends to retire may apply for a phased retirement agreement under the terms of University policy. Consideration of any application will be subject to the needs and interests of the University. Any agreement may cover: dates of retirement and any retirement payment; specified and agreed part time and/or fixed-term employment; duties; etc. The Employee shall provide the University with details of any planned future employment.

The University and employee agree that retirement means permanently withdrawing from the paid fulltime, part-time, fixed-term or casual workforce. The Employee shall provide the University with details of any planned future employment.

G7 RETIREMENT LEAVE

ELGIBILITY FOR THE BENEFITS IN THIS CLAUSE IS LIMITED TO EMPLOYEES WHO WERE EMPLOYED BY THE UNIVERSITY PRIOR TO 31 JANUARY 2023.

G7.1 Only Employees who elect to retire on or after the date they are eligible to receive government funded superannuation will be entitled to receive the following benefit to supplement their first government superannuation payment:

- (i) after 10 years continuous service – 20 working days
- (ii) after each additional year up to 25 years - 5 working days
- (iii) after each additional year over 25 years - 2 working days

The Employer may at its discretion approve early retirement of a staff member within five (5) years of their eligibility for government superannuation without affecting their eligibility for retirement leave.

The Employer may also agree to retirement on medical grounds subject to the provisions of Section G4.12 titled Medical Incapacity. As an exception to G7.1, Employees retiring on medical grounds, before they are eligible to receive government funded superannuation may also be entitled to Retirement Leave.

G7.2 Service for the purpose of retirement leave entitlement and calculation means unbroken employment with the University, either full-time or part-time (on a pro-rata basis) from the University together with any other service which the Employer may at its discretion recognise. However, previous service in the State Sector does not qualify for retiring leave if the Employee accepted voluntary severance.

G7.3 Retirement leave does not count as service. Service for retirement leave purposes is to be reckoned up to and including the last day of work, plus any annual or long-service leave due.

G7.4 In determining the period of service, the Employer may deduct periods of leave without pay exceeding three months in total.

G7.5 Retirement leave commences from the working day following the last day of work. Where annual leave or long-service leave is due, the retiring leave commences from the working day following the expiry of such leave.

G7.6 Grant in Lieu of Retiring Leave

G7.6.1 All Employees eligible for retiring leave may accept, instead of any period of retiring leave to which they are entitled (less any retiring leave already taken in anticipation as part of the phased retirement), a lump sum gratuity equivalent in value to that leave. Payment shall be made in one gross sum on the date of retirement. Payment will be pro-rated for part time Employees to reflect their hours of work.

G7.6.2 On the death of an Employee, the Employer may approve a cash grant in lieu of retiring leave to the Employee's estate.

G8 LONG SERVICE LEAVE

G8.1 In addition to holidays and annual holidays specified elsewhere in this agreement an employee shall be entitled on completion of 20 years continuous university service to a special holiday of 4 (four) weeks, which must be taken within five years of becoming due, or be forfeited. This is a once only entitlement. Long service leave should be taken at a mutually convenient time as an uninterrupted four-week block. However, by mutual agreement, employees may elect to take leave in one-week blocks.

G8.2 Long service leave is a leave entitlement, not a basis for a lump sum payment.

G8.3 Entitlement to long service leave shall not affect any retirement leave eligibility, or retirement grant payable under this agreement.

G9 CREDITING OF PREVIOUS SERVICE

G9.1 The University may give credit for other previous relevant service for purposes of calculating leave and other entitlements (e.g. annual leave, sick leave, long service leave and retiring leave).

G9.2 Decisions shall have regard to:
(i) the relevance of the service;
(ii) recruitment and retention experiences.

G10 JURY SERVICE LEAVE

- G10.1 An employee called upon for Jury Service may request to be excused where the operational needs of the Employer require attendance at work. The Employer will support that request in writing where the Employer agrees that its operational needs require the Employee's attendance at work. If the request is refused by the Courts, then the Employee called on for Jury Service will be entitled to special leave on pay. The Employee is to ensure that all fees payable by the court other than for service performed on a weekend or rostered day off are paid to the Employer. The Employee may retain any expenses payments.
- G10.2 For further information on how to apply please view the Types of Leave and How to Apply page on the staff intranet.

G11 BEREAVEMENT/TANGIHANGA LEAVE

- G11.1 An employee shall be granted bereavement leave on full pay to discharge obligations and/or to pay respects to a deceased person with whom they have had a close association. Such obligations may exist because of blood or family ties or because of particular cultural requirements such as attendance at all or part of a Tangihanga (or its equivalent).
- G11.2 In granting time off, and for how long, the Employer must administer these provisions in a culturally sensitive manner taking into account:
- (i) the closeness of the association between the Employee and the deceased, which association need not be a blood relationship;
 - (ii) whether the Employee has to take significant responsibility for any or all of the arrangements to do with the ceremonies resulting from the death;
 - (iii) the amount of time needed to discharge properly any responsibilities or obligations;
 - (iv) reasonable travelling time should be allowed, but for cases involving overseas travel that may not be the full period of travel;
 - (v) a decision must be made as quickly as possible so that the Employee is given the maximum time possible to make any necessary arrangements. In most cases the necessary approval will be given immediately, but may be given retrospectively where necessary.
- G11.3 If paid bereavement leave is not appropriate, then annual leave or leave without pay should be granted, but as a last resort.
- G11.4 If a bereavement occurs while an employee is absent on annual leave, sick leave on pay, long service leave (except when this is taken after relinquishing of office) or other discretionary leave on pay, such leave may be interrupted and bereavement leave granted in terms of the preceding clauses. This provision will not apply if the Employee is on leave without pay.

G12 STUDY LEAVE

- G12.1 Provision of Study Leave is at the discretion of the Employer.
- G12.2 Employees may be granted study leave to enable them to complete qualifications and to attend courses and seminars which are considered by their employer to be relevant to their employment. Such study leave may entitle them to the benefits set out in G12.3 and G12.5.
- G12.3 An employee who has been granted study leave under the provisions of G12.2, may have their cost of tuition paid, either in whole or in part, by the University directly at commencement of each course or courses (where such a course is offered by Waipapa Taumata Rau | The University of Auckland). Other fees and purchase of notes, books and instruments will remain the responsibility of the Employee.
- G12.4 Where the University has paid the Employee's fees and/or other related expenses, and the Employee fails to successfully complete the course or courses, (in the absence exceptional circumstances) the Employee agrees that they may be required to repay the fees as a debt that is owed to the University.
- G12.5 Where, as a course requirement, the Employee who has been granted study leave under these provisions is required to travel to another centre, the Employer may pay transport costs and expenses in accordance with University policy.

G12.6 The granting of study leave each year shall be subject to the Employee's satisfactory progress in his/her work and studies.

G12.7 Where a full time employee is required by the Employer to study towards a recognised qualification, the Employee shall be granted leave on pay up to a maximum of one day in a week, or such other times as may be required by the Employer, for the purpose of attending such a course or study.

G13 TUITION FEES

G13.1 The University may meet the costs of tuition for any employee enrolled for a course of study in the University which is relevant to the Employee's work and has been approved by the Employer. The University may approve attendance at courses in other cases without meeting the cost of tuition.

G14 OTHER LEAVE

G14.1 The Employer may grant an employee Other Leave with or without pay on such terms and conditions as the Employer may deem fit.

G15 ACCIDENT LEAVE

G15.1 Accident leave is granted in terms of Accident Compensation Act 2001.

G15.2 The University is committed to paying the first week's compensation in the case of all injuries sustained in the course of employment, even if such injuries are classified otherwise according to the Act.

G15.3 The University will pay compensation for up to 28 days following the start of incapacity until the claim is identified as work related or not. In the case of non-work related accidents, the Employee shall immediately reimburse the full amount to the Employer as soon as they receive compensation from ACC in respect of that period.

G16 FAMILY VIOLENCE LEAVE

G16.1 The University supports staff who are affected by family violence. Family violence is defined in the Family Violence Act 2018.

G16.2 From their commencement of employment, all employees are eligible for ten days of family violence leave. Staff may take family violence leave for:

- attending medical appointments and counselling
- attending legal proceedings
- seeking safe housing
- visiting legal advisors or support agencies, for re-housing or re-organising childcare, or for other relevant appointments
- other matters as a result of family violence.

G16.3 A member affected by family violence may choose to disclose to their manager/ team leader, HR staff or other parties. The Employer will maintain strict confidentiality over any relevant information.

G16.4 Affected staff are encouraged to consult the Family and Relationship Violence and Abuse Policy and if needed to access a tailored safety plan. For more information see Campus Personal Safety Planning.

H2.3 Any changes should be reasonable and take account of the need for a healthy and safe workplace. Where it becomes apparent that there is a need for redeployment into another role, the University will follow the process outlined in the Review and Restructure Policy and Procedures and Appendix A.

H4.1 Direct Credit: Payment of all salaried employees shall be by direct credit to a bank account, fortnightly.

H4.2 Final Pay: Regardless of whether the termination is on notice or without notice, the Employee's final pay is payable in the next available pay cycle, unless the Employee requests of the Employer in writing to receive the final pay on the last day of the Employee's work.

H5 DEBT RECOVERY

H5.1 Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this agreement or in law the parties agree that the Employer is entitled to make a deduction from the salary (including final pay and holiday pay in the case of a termination) of the Employee for a debt lawfully owed to the University.

H5.2 Deductions may be made, for example, for time lost through sickness or accident not covered by sick leave, unauthorised absence, non-return or damage of University property, default by the Employee, holidays taken in advance, overpayment of salary, outstanding debts or money owed to the University by the Employee.

H5.3 The Employee will be consulted before any deductions are made from pay.

H5.4 The Employer agrees that in an ongoing employment relationship where regular deductions from an employees' salary is necessary to discharge the debt, the amount deducted will be fair and reasonable, considering the interests of both parties, including whether the proposed amount is affordable for the Employee.

H6 EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP PROBLEMS

The Employment Relations Act 2000 requires that all individual agreements contain a plain-language explanation of the services and processes available to resolve any employment relationship problems.

H6.1 Employment relationship problems include:

- a personal grievance (a claim of unjustifiable dismissal, unjustifiable disadvantage, discrimination, sexual or racial harassment, or duress in relation to membership or non-membership of a union or employee organisation)
- a dispute (about the interpretation, application or operation of an employment agreement)
- any other problem relating to or arising out of the Employee's employment relationship with the University except matters relating to the fixing of new terms and conditions of employment.

H6.2 If the Employee believes there is a problem with his or her employment relationship with the University, the Employee should tell the Employee's manager, either personally or through another representative, as soon as possible:

- that there is a problem; and
- the nature of the problem; and
- what action the Employee wishes to be taken in relation to the problem.

H6.3 If for any reason the Employee feels unable to raise the matter with his or her manager, other suggested contacts are: Dean or Director, Human Resources Manager, Human Resources Advisor, Associate Director Staff Equity or Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Experience Lead.

H6.4 In the case of a personal grievance (other than for sexual harassment), the Employee must raise the matter with the Employer within 90 days of the grievance occurring or coming to the Employee's notice, whichever is the later. A written submission is preferable but not necessary. For grievances relating to sexual harassment, these must be raised within 12 months of the grievance occurring or coming to the Employee's notice.

H6.5 The Employee has the right to seek the support and assistance of his or her representative, or information from the Ministry of Business Innovation and Employment (MBIE) Mediation Service at any time.

H6.6 The University will try to resolve the matter through discussion with the Employee and/or his or her representative.

H6.7 If the problem cannot be resolved through discussion, then either the Employee or the University can request assistance from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE) Mediation Services.

H6.8 If the problem is not resolved by mediation, the Employee may apply to the Employment Relations Authority for investigation and determination.

H6.9 In certain circumstances the decision of the Employment Relations Authority may be appealed by the Employee or the University to the Employment Court.

H7 DISCIPLINARY PRINCIPLES

H7.1 Disciplinary processes shall be undertaken in accordance with the Disciplinary Procedures for Professional Staff and the principles of procedural fairness and good faith.

H7.2 Procedural Fairness

The Employer must have good grounds to discipline and/or dismiss and any disciplinary process needs to be procedurally fair. Procedural fairness requires that the Employee will:

- (a) Be fully and fairly informed of the allegation or allegations against them;
- (b) Have an informed, full and fair opportunity to respond to the alleged breaches of conduct/poor performance, including by being:
 - i. provided with all information generated by the investigation;
 - ii. notified of potential disciplinary outcomes at the outset; and
- (c) Given the opportunity to comment on any proposed penalties and raise any matters relevant to mitigation, prior to a final decision being made.
- (d) Have their responses considered with an open mind;
- (e) Be provided with an opportunity, within a specified time frame to correct the conduct/performance, with the assistance and support of the Employer (except in the case of serious misconduct or after a final written warning);
- (f) Have the right to representation at all stages of the process.

H7.3 The Employer also agrees that:

- (a) Any delegate or investigator appointed to conduct an investigation will investigate fully, fairly and impartially;
- (b) Any warnings will be issued with the approval of a Human Resources manager or advisor; and
- (c) In circumstances where disciplinary action is taken, the decision and the reasons for it, will be provided in writing to the Employee; and
- (d) Employees shall be advised of their right to challenge any disciplinary decision.

H7.4 Good faith

Both the Employer and employee will act in good faith during any disciplinary process. Both parties agree to conduct themselves in a manner that is active, constructive, responsive and communicative to ensure that a productive employment relationship is maintained through the process.

H7.5 Definitions

H7.5.1 Misconduct means

- (a) The failure of an employee in their employment to maintain proper standards of integrity, conduct or concern for the public interest or the wellbeing of the students or other employees of the University; or
- (b) The failure of an employee to comply with policies, procedures or directions of the University, Academic Head or other persons in authority at the University; or
- (c) The failure to maintain adequate standards of performance.

H7.5.2 Serious Misconduct means

- (a) Misconduct which is so serious that it may warrant summary dismissal and may include but is not limited to, sexual harassment, assault, theft, fraud, misappropriation, deliberate or repeated disregard of health and safety standards, wilful disobedience, deliberate or repeated misconduct, failure to disclose a conflict of interest, breach of the University's policy against harassment, behaviour which leads to significant loss of trust and confidence, and deliberate or repeated breaches of University policies.

H8 SUSPENSION

H8.1 Where there is an alleged case of serious misconduct the Employee may be suspended on base salary from their duties while an investigation is carried out. In addition there may be other exceptional circumstances in which an employee may be suspended with pay.

H8.2 Suspensions without pay will only occur in very rare and exceptional circumstances, such as a police investigation of serious criminality, and cognisant of the presumption of innocence. However no suspension shall be initiated or continued unless it is fair and reasonable for such a step to be taken or continued.

H8.3 Where there is a proposal to suspend an employee, that employee shall wherever practicable have the right to have access to all of the relevant information and an opportunity to be heard before the suspension occurs.

H9 CONFIDENTIALITY

H9.1 The Employee shall not disclose or share personal information pertaining to either staff or students or other information covered by the Provisions of the Privacy Act 2020 or the Official Information Act 1982.

H10 INDEMNIFICATION

H10.1 The Employer shall keep the Employee indemnified from and against all actions, claims, proceedings, costs and damages incurred or arising out of any act of omission or statement of the Employee in the course of his/her employment, provided that this indemnity shall not be available to an employee who wilfully causes loss or damage or fails to act in good faith.

H11 ABANDONMENT OF EMPLOYMENT

H11.1 When an employee is absent from work for a continuous period of three working days without notification to the Employer, the Employee shall be deemed to have abandoned employment. Where an employee was unable through no fault of that employee to notify the Employer, employment shall not be deemed to have been abandoned.

H12 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

H12.1 Written notice of termination shall be two weeks by either party but this may be reduced by mutual agreement. This shall not prevent the Employer from summarily dismissing an employee for misconduct.

H12.2 Each employee upon termination shall on request be provided with a certificate of service within a reasonable period.

H12.3 Where there is a potential redundancy situation, the provisions of Appendix A shall apply.

H12.4 If the Employee's employment is terminated, or the Employee retires or resigns, they shall have the option to work out their notice period where that is practicable. The Employer shall make a payment in lieu of notice to the Employee, where the Employer determines it is not practicable for the Employee to work out their notice period.

APPENDIX A: REDUNDANCY PROVISIONS

- (a) Where the Employer carries out a review or restructure of any of the positions covered by this agreement, and such a review or restructure has the potential to affect the job security of any employee covered by this agreement, the Employer will enter into a process of consultation with the affected employee(s). Such consultation shall commence not less than one month prior to any final decisions being made provided that in specific instances this period may be reduced by mutual agreement with the Employee(s) concerned. The purpose of such consultation is to allow the parties sufficient opportunity to investigate options in good faith which would prevent any loss of employment. Nothing in this appendix applies to casual employees.
- (b) The University's approach to surplus situations shall be to explore the possibility of using redeployment, retraining and or alternatively early retirement. Where reasonable efforts to place surplus staff through these options prove unsuccessful redundancy provisions may be invoked.
- (c) Employees shall receive not less than two months' notice of the termination of their employment by reason of redundancy, or such shorter or longer period as may be agreed between the Employee and the University. They shall have the option to work out their notice where that is practicable.
- (d) Employees who have been given notice of redundancy will within the period of notice be given reasonable time, on full pay to make arrangements to seek new employment. These arrangements may include, for example, help in the preparation of a CV, job training, counselling, financial management, or attendance at job interviews. The Employer will meet reasonable costs.

Employment Protection Provisions

Note: This clause shall apply in the event of restructuring of the Employer's business.

- (e) This clause applies to restructuring (as defined in Section 690I of the Employment Relations Act 2000) and therefore will apply where the Employer intends to enter into a contract or arrangement under which its business (or part of it) is to be undertaken by another person or business, or where the Employer's business (or part of it) is to be sold or transferred to another person or business. In the event a restructuring will affect employees, the Employer shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, (taking into account the commercial and confidentiality requirements of the business), commence negotiations with the other party involved in the restructuring (the "Other Party") concerning the impact of the restructuring on every employee.

In those negotiations, the Employer will, subject to any statutory, commercial confidence or privacy issues, provide the Other Party with all information about the Employees who will be affected by the restructuring, including details of their current terms and conditions of employment. The Employer will encourage the Other Party to offer all affected employees, employment on no less favourable terms and conditions of employment than they currently enjoy with the University.

However, whether the Other Party offers an employee ongoing employment and on what terms and conditions, will ultimately be the decision of that Other Party.

Two options may be offered. They are:

- The Other Party does offer the Employee employment on terms and conditions which are no less favourable than their existing terms and conditions. The Employee may accept this offer to transfer to the Other Party or the staff member may decline the offer. If the Employee accepts or declines the offer then they will not be entitled to any redundancy compensation from the University.
- If the staff member is not offered employment, by the Other Party, then the Employer will consult with the staff member regarding whether there are any suitable alternative positions available. If none can be identified or offered to the Employee then they will be entitled to two months' notice and redundancy compensation as per Appendix A (k) in this agreement.

Redeployment:

- (f) The conditions under which employees may be redeployed to alternative duties within the University are as follows:
 - (i) Employees may be deployed to a position at the same, higher or lower salary;
 - (ii) Where the new position is at a lower salary, an equalisation allowance will be paid for a period of two years to preserve the salary of the Employee in the old position at the time of redeployment.
- (g) The equalisation allowance will be paid as an on-going allowance for two years equivalent to the difference between the present salary and the new salary. The allowance will be abated by any salary increase for the new position during the two year period.

- (h) Employees who are offered a position in the University which by mutual agreement is comparable to their existing position, noting that such agreement is not to be unreasonably withheld, and who decline appointment, will not be eligible for redundancy compensation.
- (i) Where an employee agrees to be redeployed into a position that is not comparable to their existing position, or the Employee has accepted a comparable position that is subsequently found by the Employee to be not comparable to their existing position in good faith, the Employee may within the first three months in the new position and after consultation with the Employer to explore other options, elect to resign from it, by giving the appropriate notice. The Employee will receive a severance payment calculated on the salary and service of the Employee immediately prior to the time s/he was initially redeployed.
- (j) Employees who receive redundancy compensation and are re-employed by the University in a permanent or fixed term capacity within twelve (12) months of termination of employment, may be required to pay back any redundancy compensation they received. In the case of a permanent employment, an employee may be required to pay all or some of their compensation abating on a pro rata basis subject to the length of time that has elapsed since their final day of employment with the University. In the case of a fixed term appointment, employees will be required pay back some or all their redundancy compensation subject to the length of the offer of fixed term employment in accordance with (k) below.
- (k) In the case of redeployment into a fixed term position which by mutual agreement is comparable to their existing position and which then ceases to exist, and the Employee is not further redeployed, the employee's employment agreement shall terminate and the Employee will be paid severance on the following basis:
 - (i) Where the position ceases during the first 12 months of redeployment the full severance payment will be made at the end of the fixed term;
 - (ii) Where the position ceases after a period in excess of one year but not exceeding two years of redeployment, 50% of the severance payment will be made at the end of the fixed term;
 - (iii) Where the position ceases beyond two years of redeployment no severance payment will be made.

Redundancy:

- (l) Upon leaving the University because of redundancy the Employee shall be offered a severance payment as follows based on continuous service with the University.
 - (a) Six weeks ordinary pay for the first year (or less) of service to the University.
 - (b) Two weeks ordinary pay for the second and subsequent years or part thereof. The maximum severance payment under this clause shall be 40 weeks ordinary pay.Annual leave and Long Service Leave due shall be paid in addition to the above payment.
- (m) Severance payment for a fixed term position that ceases to exist will be calculated on the basis of salary and service of the Employee, and will not be greater than the salary that would be due over the unexpired portion of the term.
- (n) Where the employment of an employee engaged in an activity of the University comes to an end because that activity is sold or transferred and the person who acquires that activity offers to employ that employee:
 - (a) on conditions that are the same as or no less favourable than the existing conditions; and
 - (b) on the basis that service with the University is treated as if it were service with the new employer and as if it were continuous; and the Employee accepts the offer then the Employee shall not be entitled to any severance payment under clause (k) of this agreement.

Where the Employee declines to accept the position, the Employee will consult with the Employer over redeployment and other options contained in clauses (e) to (k), including the following option.

Where the person acquiring the activity offers a different role or employment on less favourable terms and conditions, the Employee(s) may, at their sole option, negotiate with the University over the terms and conditions surrounding termination of employment with the University and acceptance of employment with the new employer.
