

TRAFFIC

AN INTERDISCIPLINARY POSTGRADUATE JOURNAL

Traffic is a refereed interdisciplinary journal, set up by the University of Melbourne Postgraduate Association (UMPA) and co-funded by the office of the Vice-Chancellor. The journal aims to facilitate a dialogue between disciplines, and to provide a forum for postgraduates to demonstrate their research to the broader community.

Traffic features some of the best writing from Melbourne University postgraduates. The second edition covers a diverse range of topics from such disciplines as history, geology, fine arts and German studies. Traffic is published biannually.

For more information, contact the editor, Heather Benbow, at traffic@umpa.unimelb.edu.au or by telephone on (03) 8344 3469. The subscription form can also be downloaded from UMPA's web site at www.umpa.unimelb.edu.au/traffic.

TO SUBSCRIBE, fill in this form and send with payment to University of Melbourne Postgraduate Association, Graduate Centre, University of Melbourne, Parkville, Victoria 3010, or fax to (03) 9347 1257. You can also call UMPA Reception on (03) 8344 8657 and subscribe over the phone.
