

UNDERSTANDING THE EDUCATIONAL LANDSCAPE

Each edition of 'Understanding the Education Landscape' has focused on unpacking a different organisation or element of the teaching profession. As you have no doubt come to understand in your graduate year, our roles are supported and resourced by a myriad of organisations and individuals which all play a part in helping achieve the best outcomes for students.

Below is a summary of what we've covered throughout the year in case you'd like to review any information.

Edition 1: Getting started – Introducing yourself to key people, resources, Edumail and induction.

Edition 2: Victorian Institute of Teaching \(VIT\)

Edition 3: Australian Education Union \(AEU\)

Edition 4: Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership \(AITSL\)

Edition 5: Victorian Curriculum Assessment Authority \(VCAA\)

Edition 6: Bastow Institute of Educational Leadership

Edition 7: Learning Places \(regional operating model\)

Edition 8: Supporting the learning and development of Koorie communities

Edition 9: Professional development

Edition 10: Additional roles – Learning Specialist, School Council, Parent groups

Edition 11: Working with Education Support Staff

Edition 12: Summary of The Education Landscape