

Series name: Leftovers

Episode name/number: Girls on Facebook

Duration: 2.45 minutes

Link to webisode: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AdS4XbyCpqM>

Completed by (student names): Alana Cooper and Shannon Griffiths

Describe

Aesthetic	Narrative	Industrial
Angles - 180 degrees, 'the line' Lighting - Natural, sunlight Sound Layers - Diegetic, natural soundscape, voice only Editing - Choppy, back and forth, quick	Characters - 'Helena' and 'Pip' Story Arc - Skits, University life, Slice of Life Setting - Melbourne CBD, suburbs	Crew - Basic, the actors themselves Credits - Social Media, Links Equipment - Basic Funding - None / little

Analyse

Audience	Genre	Contextual
Demographic - 17 - 25, University students Made by uni students, content about elements of university / youth life / culture Platform - Youtube/ Facebook/ Twitter Feedback - Relatable, Funny, Accessible	Style - Skit / Sketch Tropes - "Awkward Young Adult", "Vain Teenager", "Overbearing Adults" Language - 'Youth' language, text speak Themes - Navigating life, growing up	We first discovered Leftovers on Facebook, as it was trending. They get most of their views through Youtube, however the majority of their videos are on their Facebook page. They have also been mentioned by popular websites such as FOX FM and BuzzFeed. To find out more, Leftovers provide links from all platforms including Facebook, Youtube and Twitter.